

Graduate Courses 2007-08

Fall 2007

Proseminar I (Huffman)
Classical Sociological Theory (Meyer)
Graduate Statistics I (Faust)
Demographic Analysis (Wang)
Introduction to Social Network Analysis (Freeman)
Race, Ethnicity and Opportunity (Lee)
Mexican Migration and US Policy (Bean)
Social Movements (Meyer)
Political Sociology (Amenta and Bolzendahl)
Sociology of Culture (Polletta)
Globalization and the World System (Smith)
Population (Brown)
Immigrant America (Rumbaut)
Informant Accuracy (Butts)

Winter 2008

Proseminar II (Huffman)
Network Theory (Butts)
Research Design (Treas)
Graduate Statistics II (Noymer)
Comparative Historical Methods (Stepan-Norris)
Survey Research Methods I (Pixley)
Theory of Ethnicity (Rumbaut)
Immigrant Incorporation (Bean)
Women in Legislature (Bolzendahl)
Comparative Contentious Politics (Su)
Family and Households (Treas)
Power and Empowerment in Organizations (Feldman)

Spring 2008

Contemporary Sociological Theory (Liu)
Graduate Statistics III (Noymer)
Survey Research Methods II (Pixley)
Event History Analysis (Schofer)
Presenting Research Results (Treas)
Advanced Issues in Event History Analysis (Schofer)
Race and Ethnicity (Robnett)
Immigration Research (Bean)
Community and Immigration (Brown)
Inequality (Huffman)
Sociology of Sense Making (Hironaka)
Deliberative Democracy (Feldman, Polletta and Rosenberg)
Sociology and Philosophy (Zald)

